California Realty

My name is Dan Durnall, I am lucky enough to say I am a lifelong Tuolumne County resident. Along with being a Outdoorsmen, and Horsemen, I am a Realtor at PRUDENTIAL CALIFORNIA REALTY in Sonora California.

Ranches, Ranchland, and Horse Properties are my passion. Whether I am representing a buyer or seller I enjoy nothing more than covering and getting to know a piece of property either by Horseback, ATV, or on Foot so I can represent you to the fullest.

If you or anyone you know are considering buying or selling any type of Real Estate, whether it's a Ranch, Land, or a House give me a call or drop me an email. I will use my knowledge of the county, and the large contact base I have with Real Estate agents and people throughout our county, and state to match your property with that perfect buyer. Or find you that perfect Real Estate to buy.

I will do my best to help you in all of your Real Estate needs!!

Thank You!

Dan Durnall
